Summary of Record of Interview Requirements

Manual of Patent Examining Procedure (MPEP), Section 713.04, Substance of Interview Must be Made of Record

A complete written statement as to the substance of any face-to-face, video conference, or telephone interview with regard to an application must be made of record in the application whether or not an agreement with the examiner was reached at the interview.

Title 37 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) § 1.133 Interviews Paragraph (b)

In every instance where reconsideration is requested in view of an interview with an examiner, a complete written statement of the reasons presented at the interview as warranting favorable action must be filed by the applicant. An interview does not remove the necessity for reply to Office action as specified in §§ 1.111, 1.135. (35 U.S.C. 132)

37 CFR §1.2 Business to be transacted in writing.

All business with the Patent or Trademark Office should be transacted in writing. The personal attendance of applicants or their attorneys or agents at the Patent and Trademark Office is unnecessary. The action of the Patent and Trademark Office will be based exclusively on the written record in the Office. No attention will be paid to any alleged oral promise, stipulation, or understanding in relation to which there is disagreement or doubt.

The action of the Patent and Trademark Office cannot be based exclusively on the written record in the Office if that record is itself incomplete through the failure to record the substance of interviews.

It is the responsibility of the applicant or the attorney or agent to make the substance of an interview of record in the application file, unless the examiner indicates he or she will do so. It is the examiner's responsibility to see that such a record is made and to correct material inaccuracies which bear directly on the question of patentability.

Examiners must complete an Interview Summary Form for each interview held where a matter of substance has been discussed during the interview by checking the appropriate boxes and filling in the blanks. Discussions regarding only procedural matters, directed solely to restriction requirements for which interview recordation is otherwise provided for in Section 812.01 of the Manual of Patent Examining Procedure, or pointing out typographical errors or unreadable script in Office actions or the like, are excluded from the interview recordation procedures below. Where the substance of an interview is completely recorded in an Examiners Amendment, no separate Interview Summary Record is required.

The Interview Summary Form shall be given an appropriate Paper No., placed in the right hand portion of the file, and listed on the "Contents" section of the file wrapper. In a personal interview, a duplicate of the Form is given to the applicant (or attorney or agent) at the conclusion of the interview. In the case of a telephone or video-conference interview, the copy is mailed to the applicant's correspondence address either with or prior to the next official communication. If additional correspondence from the examiner is not likely before an allowance or if other circumstances dictate, the Form should be mailed promptly after the interview rather than with the next official communication.

The Form provides for recordation of the following information:

- Application Number (Series Code and Serial Number)
- Name of applicant
- Name of examiner
- Date of interview
- Type of interview (telephonic, video-conference, or personal)
- Name of participant(s) (applicant, attorney or agent, examiner, other PTO personnel, etc.)
- An indication whether or not an exhibit was shown or a demonstration conducted
- An identification of the specific prior art discussed
- An indication whether an agreement was reached and if so, a description of the general nature of the agreement (may be by attachment of a copy of amendments or claims agreed as being allowable). Note: Agreement as to allowability is tentative and does not restrict further action by the examiner to the contrary.
- The signature of the examiner who conducted the interview (if Form is not an attachment to a signed Office action)

It is desirable that the examiner orally remind the applicant of his or her obligation to record the substance of the interview of each case. It should be noted, however, that the Interview Summary Form will not normally be considered a complete and proper recordation of the interview unless it includes, or is supplemented by the applicant or the examiner to include, all of the applicable items required below concerning the substance of the interview.

A complete and proper recordation of the substance of any interview should include at least the following applicable items:

- 1) A brief description of the nature of any exhibit shown or any demonstration conducted,
- 2) an identification of the claims discussed,
- 3) an identification of the specific prior art discussed,
- 4) an identification of the principal proposed amendments of a substantive nature discussed, unless these are already described on the Interview Summary Form completed by the Examiner,
- 5) a brief identification of the general thrust of the principal arguments presented to the examiner,
(The identification of arguments need not be lengthy or elaborate. A verbatim or highly detailed description of the arguments is not required. The identification of the arguments is sufficient if the general nature or thrust of the principal arguments made to the examiner can be understood in the context of the application file. Of course, the applicant may desire to emphasize and fully describe those arguments which he or she feels were or might be persuasive to the examiner.)
- 6) a general indication of any other pertinent matters discussed, and
- 7) if appropriate, the general results or outcome of the interview unless already described in the Interview Summary Form completed by the examiner.

Examiners are expected to carefully review the applicant's record of the substance of an interview. If the record is not complete and accurate, the examiner will give the applicant an extendable one month time period to correct the record.

Examiner to Check for Accuracy

If the claims are allowable for other reasons of record, the examiner should send a letter setting forth the examiner's version of the statement attributed to him or her. If the record is complete and accurate, the examiner should place the indication, "Interview Record OK" on the paper recording the substance of the interview along with the date and the examiner's initials.

DETAILED ACTION

This action is in response to amendments/arguments filed 4/19/2007. Currently claims 1-13 and 22-24 are pending in the instant application.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-2, 4, 7-12, and 22-24 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-2, 4, 7, 9-12, and 22-24 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sheridan (US Patent 3,508,554) in view of Field (US Patent 5,919,183). Sheridan discloses an esophageal device comprising a slender tube/insert

(2) that has multiple functions (col. 1, lines 33-42). The tube/insert (2) comprises a tubular member (4) a proximal (8), distal (6), and intermediate section (fig. 2) therebetween and integrally connected. The tube/insert is made of plastic and opaque (col. 5, lines 56-61). Also, the tube/insert (2) has indicia markings (10) to mark the depth of the tube in the user. The proximal and distal sections (8, 6) have front and rear sections, as well as tips (fig. 2). The length and diameter of the tube/insert (2) are about 20 to 90 cm and 2 to 5 mm (col. 4, lines 70-73), respectively.

With respect to the distal section front portion extending from about 0.5% to about 50% of the total length of said slender tube/insert (2), the applicant has not disclosed that this specificity implies any particular criticality or useful advantage. Further, Sheridan does not disclose a specific length or range of lengths for the distal section with respect to the total length of the tube/insert (2). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to make the distal section front portion in accordance with the needs of a particular patient as such would have been a matter of engineering design choice.

The tube/insert is flexible (col. 8, lines 60-62). It is obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art the endotracheal tubes are made of stiff, malleable, and ductile material in order to position a tube in the throat without injuring the user and to allow the tube to bend from the mouth to the throat without collapsing the tube so medical devices, air, or food can pass through the tube. Sheridan fails to disclose the selected hardness of the proximal and distal sections are between about 50 SHORE A to about 90 SHORE D., the tube is made of PVC, tips of softer material than the intermediate section, an end bent between 25 and 45 degrees and reshaped upon withdrawal, and the proximal and distal sections having a SHORE hardness approximately 20 to 30% less than said selected hardness of said intermediate section. However, Field teaches an endotracheal tube (1) comprising an introducer (2) of hardness between 50 SHORE A and 80 SHORE D (col. 1, lines 53-55), that has a proximal end bent at 40 degrees (col. 2, lines 35-40), which is around 35 degrees, and reshapes upon withdrawal (col. 46-49), and tips softer than the intermediate section (col. 3, lines 26-29); a tube (1) made of PVC (col. 2, lines 19-20) that bends to conform to the throat (col. 2, lines 21-25). Therefore it would be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art the time of the invention to modify the Sheridan device with the limitations, as taught by Field, in order to make the tube easier to insert into the user's throat.

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sheridan/Fields as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Perkins (US Patent 7,141,046). Sheridan/Field fails to disclose the insert includes an embedded fiber optic means. However, Perkins teaches a catheter (80), which is analogous to the endotracheal tubes, with embedded fiber optics (88). Therefore, it would be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify the Sheridan/Fields device with fiber optics, in order to assist the caregiver in seeing within the throat while inserting the tube.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
